❖ Requirements of the players:

This is a church league and our goal is to honor God with our words and actions. Teams from Eastland and the community must abide by the rules of this league. No cursing, drinking, or smoking will be tolerated on church grounds. If a player receives a technical, he must sit out the remainder of that game. A player who receives a second technical during the season will automatically be kicked out of the league. A player can receive 1 warning from the referee during the season without penalty. After that point, he must sit the remainder of the game for each warning that he receives.
